

GOD'S PURPOSE FOR WORK
Every Good Endeavour #2
TCC, May 2014

SMALL GROUP NOTES

Last week Hugh continued our 'Every Good Endeavour' Series and looked at how we can grasp God's Purpose for work by living with a sense of CALLING, understanding our work is CO-LABOURING with God in His work, and realising that in everything we do, God is first working in us – on our CHARACTER.

Scriptures

Ephesians 2:10, 1 Cor 7:17, 2 Thess 3:12, Rom 8:21-22

Questions

1. What struck you during the sermon?
2. Do you have a sense of 'calling' in your work? How can we grasp a bigger picture for our 'endeavours'?
3. We looking at the GENERAL calling that all mankind have, the PARTICULAR things Christians are called to do with regard to work and the UNIQUE aspect of our callings – what is your 'unique' shape? If you are not aware of your unique shape...what can you do to grow in that awareness?
4. What are some of the CHARACTER things God has worked on/is working out in you at the moment?
