John 17:1-5 – “Why Did Jesus Die for Us?”

Bulletin-Web-Email Notes

John 12:27-28

D. A. Carson: “What is unique about this prayer rests neither on form nor on literary associations but on him who offers it, and when. He is the incarnate Son of God, and he is returning to his Father by the route of a desperately shameful and painful death. He prays that the course on which he is embarked will bring glory to his Father, and that his followers, in consequence of his own death and exaltation, will be preserved from evil and for the priceless privilege of seeing Jesus’s glory, all the while imitating in their own relationship the reciprocity of love displayed by the Father and the Son.”
