

DAY 1:
DEVOTED TO THE ESSENTIALS

ACTS 2:42-47

The early church devoted themselves to four essential practices: the apostles' teaching, fellowship, breaking bread, and prayer. Worship wasn't confined to one location — they met both in the temple and in homes. It was a daily rhythm that shaped their community.

As a result, “the Lord added to their number day by day those who were being saved.” As a community of believers pursues the Lord wholeheartedly, he brings those in need of his saving grace so they can experience living in community the way it was always intended: devoted to the Lord.

Catching up about the weather, sports, politics, hobbies and interests are good things. But they should never take precedent over the essentials that help us point each other back to God.
