“Sorrow and Salvation”

Genesis 6

As the depravity of rebellion accelerated in human history, God intervened. This chapter is misunderstood when described as the story of the flood. It is the story of a righteous man named Noah, a parenthesis in the genealogy of Seth. In every generation and despite sin, God succeeds with men and women of holiness.

1. Unrighteous Indulgence (vv.1-4)

2. Divine Indignation (vv.5-7)

3. Divine Identification (vv.8-12)

4. Divine Instruction (vv.13-21)

5. Righteous Inclination (v.22)
