1-2 Thessalonians: Today and Tomorrow

"A Counterfeit Christ"

2 Thessalonians 2:1-12

God never gives specific dates for Jesus' return; but Paul, inspired by the Spirit, is allowed to offer us a panoramic glimpse of God's victory and evil's doom. The value of the doctrine of the Second Coming is in the guarantee that history is going somewhere, thus inspiring courage, perseverance, and hope. Believers daily devote themselves to righteousness in anticipation of that day when His glory is made evident.
