

Ephesians: Salvation, Theology and Practice

“Practical Salvation, Visible and Invisible”

Ephesians 5:21-6:24

Paul completes his survey of the Christian life by exploring the everyday implications of the Spirit-filled life for human relationships; and then he turns to that same life played out in the invisible realm. The clear implication is that spiritual warfare is not to be seen as some esoteric or unusual feature of Christianity, but rather, the common concern of followers.

1. Concentric Circles of Influence (5:21-6:9)

- Marriage (5:21-33)

- Family (6:1-4)

- Workplace (6:5-9)

2. Engaging Spiritual Battles (6:10-24)
