

Ezekiel: Living Faith in Exile
“Overwhelmed by Glory, Not Crisis”
Ezekiel 1:1-28

The first wave of exiles have been transplanted from Judah to Babylon. Jerusalem and the Temple are about to be destroyed. Where is God? How could He allow pagans to occupy the land of promise? Is He absent? How can people of faith survive in a pagan culture dominated by unbelievers? This question, even today, remains uncomfortably relevant.

1. Context Defined (vv.1-3)

2. Cherubim Described (vv.4-14)

3. Chariot-Throne Displayed (vv.15-26a)

4. Sovereignty Declared (vv.26b-28a)

5. Submission Determined (v.28b)