

Walking with the Invisible God
“What ‘Walking with God’ Looks Like”
Exodus 33:12-23; 34:29-35

“Walking with God” is a common enough phrase in contemporary Christianity; and yet, Christians never seem to grasp exactly how to do it. Is it a mystical vision of the divine? An unexpected gift of the supernatural? A magical process requiring the right words or rituals? What if someone who knew how to walk with the invisible God could show us?

1. Hunger to Know the Ways of God (33:12-14)

2. Refusal to Move Forward Without God (33:15-17)

3. Passion for More of God than Before (33:18-23)

4. Humility and Glory Intermingled (34:29-35)
