“Peter Muhlenberg & John Jay: God’s Justice”
Ecclesiastes 3:1-15

The founding of a new nation requires convictions regarding the relationship of a people to Almighty God, a clear definition of justice, and a trustworthy source for determining right actions. The colonial fathers were convinced that God was directing the course of human events and, as a result, they acted with boldness to change history.

1. Justice Seen in Providence (Ecclesiastes 3:1-15)

2. Justice Found in the Word (Ps. 33:12; Prov. 14:34; 2 Tim. 3:16)
