

“Easter Samples”
John 20:19, 20; Revelation 19:11-16

Easter is regularly understood as a day of remembering; but it is also meant to be a day of anticipation. The first Easter was a taste, a sampling, of what waits in store for authentic followers of Jesus. Today, let Evergreen recall the emotions of that first Easter; and let us also imagine the emotions of the coming day of His return!

1. Remembering the First Easter (John 20:19, 20)

- Hiding in Fear (v.19a)

- Celebrating in Joy (vv.19b, 20)

2. Rehearsing the Next Arrival (Revelation 19:11-16)

- Authority Proclaimed (vv.11, 12)

- Atonement Remembered (v.13)

- Justice Vindicated (vv.14, 15)

- Identity Announced (v.16)
