

Old Testament Glimpses of Easter

“An Easter Preview”

Isaiah 52:13-53:6

The Servant’s mission appears, at first glance, to lack any real hope of success. He was charged to reach the entire world; he was overwhelmingly rejected by men; he suffered horribly and finally died. Yet the nations will be stunned and kings will be speechless at His ultimate accomplishments. God will reward the Servant with eternal honor and glory!

1. The Servant’s Startling Success (52:13-15)

2. The Servant’s Surprising Sorrow (53:1-3)

3. The Servant’s Substitute Sacrifice (53:4-6)
