

So Close: Snatching Defeat From The Jaws Of Victory

1 Corinthians 10:1-13

(First Preached 4/26/26)

As God works through His people to bring salt and light to the world, He promises to share His glory with them. But in their sinful hearts, they can be tempted to forget who is truly changing the world around them. The test for Evergreen is not whether temptation will come; it is a matter of when. The only thing more predictable than the temptation is the certainty that God will provide an escape to help us finish the race!
