

Lessons from the Fathers
“Ambrose of Milan: Music and Moral Authority”
Mark 6; Colossians 3:16

Politician turned bishop, this unlikely Church father played a significant role in defending orthodoxy, demonstrating the Church’s influence in the public square, and shaping worship in the fourth century. His story has particular relevance to our current age when the secular culture needs the engagement of the Church more than ever.

1. Biography and Writings

2. Virtue as a Power for Public Influence (Mark 6:14-29)

3. Music as a Tool for Public Worship (Colossians 3:16)