

Mark 6-10: Imitating the King
“Defining Prosperity”
Mark 10:17-31

Contemporary American Christianity has an obsession with wealth and prosperity. This preoccupation is the result of misunderstanding precisely what discipleship requires. The breathtaking expectation for Jesus-followers confronts dramatically the only man mentioned in the Gospels who went away sad from the presence of Jesus.

1. Faulty Self-Evaluation (vv.17-20)

2. Supernatural Perception (vv.21-27)

3. Eternal Compensation (vv.28-31)
