

Praying Dangerous Prayers
“Prayer for National Mercy”
Exodus 32:9-14, 31, 32; 33:12-23; 34:29, 30

We live in a generation driven to remove all vestiges of God and faith from the public square. The Bible is ignored. The Constitution is twisted beyond its meaning. One offended person can block any religious exercise or censor public prayer. Christians wring their hands and worry for the future. But is this our only recourse? Can we do nothing else? What if we were desperate enough to pray as Moses prayed?

1. Reflecting God’s Love (32:9-14)

2. Reflecting God’s Heart (32:31, 32)

3. Reflecting God’s Desire (33:12-23)

4. Reflecting God’s Glory (34:29, 30)
