

Lessons from the Fathers
“Eusebius of Caesarea: History Preserved”
Exodus 16:31-34; Joshua 4:1-9; Luke 22:19

Spiritual amnesia is a danger to faith in every generation. The psalmist complained, “They forgot what He had done, and the wonders He had shown them” (Psalm 78:11). Fortunately, this Church father, Eusebius of Caesarea, recognized the importance of remembering the history of God’s mighty acts in the lives of His Church. We are in his debt, even today.

1. Biography and Writings

2. Attention to Christian Memory (Exodus 16:31-34)

3. Reason for Christian Memory (Joshua 4:1-9)

4. Model for Christian Memory (Luke 22:19, 20)
