

Ephesians: Salvation, Theology and Practice

“Real-World Holiness”

Ephesians 4:1-5:21

Ephesians pulsates with a double desire: that believers have a fuller comprehension of what God in Christ is doing in them and for them, and that their lives measure up to His work of grace. The theology of salvation now becomes intensely practical as Paul offers detailed instruction about becoming “imitators of God.”

1. Biblical Church Life (4:1-16)

2. Imitation and Rejection (4:17-5:7)

3. Portrait of a Follower (5:8-21)