

Galatians: No Compromise
“Justification, Faith, Promise”
Galatians 3:1-22

Paul continues his instruction against legalism by pointing to the Galatians' own experience of justification by faith and not by law. He then defends this doctrine from the Old Testament, exposing the misinterpretations of the false teachers. Biblical faith accomplishes something that good works alone can never do!

1. Circumstance of Justification (vv.1-5)

2. Conversion by Faith (vv.6-14)

3. Covenant of Promise (vv.15-22)
