

Old Testament Glimpses of Easter

“God’s Two Addresses”

Isaiah 57:14, 15; 66:1, 2

The habitation of the gods has been a fascination in almost every culture throughout human history. The prophet Isaiah stands tall with a revelation that would have stunned his hearers and all who had come before him—God lives in a most extraordinary place. He dwells among humble men who honor His Word.

1. Grace is God’s Most Unexpected Action (57:14, 15)

2. Humility is Man’s Most Unappreciated Virtue (66:1, 2)
