

John 1-4: The Word Made Flesh

“Witness to the Light”

John 1:6-8, 15, 19-34

John the Baptist is suddenly interjected into the gospel narrative as an example of one who follows God without reservation. He lives out his assigned mission. He points to Jesus in every aspect of life. The author, John, presents the baptizer, John, as the first example of one who believes in Jesus and lives daily by truth.
