

Baptist Faith & Message 2000

“Sin and Redemption”

Articles III-VIII

The confession now turns to the human condition, the presence of sin, the need for salvation, and the practical expressions of God’s people in every generation. Baptist thought is particularly distinctive when it comes to understanding the church and its practices.

III. Man

Imago Dei, Fallen Nature

IV. Salvation

A. Regeneration

B. Justification

C. Sanctification

D. Glorification

V. God’s Purpose of Grace

Election, Perseverance, Struggle against Sin

VI. The Church

Founding, Mission, Structure

VII. Baptism and the Lord’s Supper

VIII. The Lord’s Day