

ATS Salt Lake City Team Agreement

1. Team Communication and Relationships

- a. Choose to believe the best about each other in all circumstances.

Ask questions rather than make assumptions.

- b. Be quick to bring conflict if you feel hurt or offended.

Bring a team leader in if you feel it is needed.

- c. Give daily encouragements to each other.

We will make space for this each day, but please go above and beyond!

- d. Communicate your needs quickly, clearly and kindly.

We want to lead you all well and in a way that you feel cared for and empowered.

But also know that you will be stretched and asked to take risks on this trip. Sometimes your needs, desires and expectations may not be met.

2. Living Together

- a. Together with your housemates, come to an agreement on how you want to uphold your living spaces/situations.

Please seek to honor one another and be willing to compromise.

- b. Do conflict as needed. (see above)

And your dishes.

3. Engaging Locals and the Salt Lake City team

- a. Respect and honor the Antioch SLC team.

Listen and engage in discussions and training.

Be humble, willing to learn and follow their direction/instruction.

Ask questions.

- b. Follow guidelines and instructions given for outreach/local engagement. (ex. Time to leave/come back, allowed locations to visit, etc.)

4. Personal Devotional Life/Engage With the Mission

- a. First and foremost, we are on mission, not vacation.

Spend time with God daily before our morning team time.

- b. Pray for yourself, the team and the locals.

- c. Reach out! Engage locals with gospel conversations on each outreach.

1. Stretch yourself to engage with the mission.

- a. Do it with Jesus - He is with you!

- b. How you abide in Jesus and walk in the Holy Spirit will to make or break your trip.

John 15:5 "I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing."

2 Timothy 1:7 "For the Spirit God gave us does not make us timid, but gives us power, love and self-discipline."

Personal Note:

You are here because Jesus has invited you to be a part of something that He is already doing in Salt Lake City. He has plans for our time in there that will change us forever, if we engage. This trip will be stretching in ways, but as you trust God and lean into Him, He will show Himself faithful.

Our desire is that each of you will come back with memories and experiences that far exceed anything you could have imagined! We ask each of you to prepare for these days through prayer. In our time there, we not only want to encourage and empower the staff and people of Antioch Salt Lake, but we believe that God will bring salvation, healings, encounters and freedom for all those we meet and serve. You were made for this. We love you!
