Dealing With My Doubt

Big Idea

My faith is a journey, not a destination.

Matthew 28:16-20

Faith and Belief

When you hear the words faith and belief, they can almost seem interchangeable. Some might even think of them as identical twins. However, as you begin to dig a little deeper, you will discover that faith and belief are more like cousins than identical twins. While they are related, they are not the same.

-C. Haynes

It is impossible to believe in something, but not have faith.

The strongest faith isn't a faith that never doubts.
The strongest faith is a faith that grows through your doubts.

"Doubt is not always a sign that a man is wrong;
it may be a sign that he is thinking."

-Oswald Chambers

One moment Thomas is doubting and the next moment he is shouting, "My Lord and my God!"

God is not distant in your doubts. Reach out to Him, He is reaching out to you! Doubt can drive you away from God or drive you to God. The devil uses doubt to drive you away from God. But God can use doubt to draw you closer to Him.

Walk through the valley,
even the darkest valley of doubt.
Don't let doubt be your dead end!
