Talk It Over

1. What did you think and/or how did you feel about your experience of "Christ in the Passover" on Sunday?

2. Read Exodus 12. In what way did the lambs on the first Passover protect the families of God's people? What is the primary point of comparison between the first Passover lambs and what Christ did for us as our Passover Lamb?

3. Read Matthew 26:26-28. Why should the words, "for this is my blood, which confirms the covenant between God and his people. It is poured out as a sacrifice to forgive the sins of many," fill us with sorrow? Why should they fill us with joy?

4. In light of The Lord's Supper, why is it so important to forgive those who have offended us? In what sense are the Lord's Supper and unforgiveness incompatible? (Consider Matthew 26:28; 1 Corinthians 11:27; Matthew 6:14-15; 5:23-24; James 5:16.)

5. In what way does each celebration of the Lord's Supper anticipate a future Passover meal? (Matthew 26:29; Luke 13:28-29; 14:15; 22:30; Revelation 19:9; 1 Corinthians 11:26)

6. Was there anything in your experience of "Christ in the Passover" that moves you to action?

Consider Together: "Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed" (1 Corinthians 5:7), and in the Lord's Supper we are invited to partake not only of the sacrifice (see 1 Corinthians 10:16-18), but to celebrate both our redemption through Christ's atonement and his coming again. The next time you have the privilege of partaking of the Lord's Supper, remember and be thankful.

Just as the Passover lamb was interposed to redeem the people of Israel from slavery in Egypt, so Jesus interposes himself to redeem his people from their bondage to sin. Behold, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

PRAY: Father, thank you for the rich imagery of Christ as our Passover lamb. Thank you for his willingness to be sacrificed on our behalf. Thank you for the comfort and hope that we find in the Lord's Supper. And thank you for the expectation we have of the final Banquet with you. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.
