Overcoming Excuses

Big Idea

Our excuses don't excuse us - God equips the willing.

Exodus 4:10-12, Acts 1:8

Excuse #1 - "I don't know what to say."

God gives words.

Do you really trust God???

Excuse #2 - "I'm not good enough."

"Who makes a person's mouth: The fact that Moses believed that he was not eloquent is completely beside the point. The God who created the most eloquent mouths who ever lived was on his side." -David Guzik

Excuse #3 - "I don't know enough."
I will instruct you in what to say.

Excuse #4 - "What if they reject me?"
They're rejecting Christ, not you.
What if they don't reject you or Christ?

Sermon Questions

Icebreaker: If you could have one “superpower” to help you share the gospel more effectively (like instant courage, perfect words, or a glowing halo), what would it be – and why?

1. What is one thing that stood out to you from this week’s message?
2. In Exodus 4, Moses gives God excuses for why he can’t speak. How do you relate personally to Moses’ hesitation in Exodus 4:10–12? What excuses have you used for not sharing your faith? Did you relate more deeply with one of the excuses Pastor Kendall addressed?
3. What does God’s response to Moses teach us about how He views our weaknesses and limitations? Read 1 Corinthians 1:26–27. In what ways do our feelings of inadequacy actually make us the ideal candidates for God to use?
4. Acts 1:8 says that when we share our faith, we are acting as a witness (not a prosecuting attorney). What is the difference between these two roles, and how does that change the way you prepare to speak?
5. In Acts 1:8, Jesus connects witnessing with the Holy Spirit’s power. What does that teach us about evangelism?
6. What are the most common or difficult questions you worry people will ask you about Christianity? (Let the group work together to prepare simple, loving answers.)
7. What roles do obedience and trust play in overcoming our excuses? How can we make ourselves more available to God’s leading?
8. What are some practical ways to begin conversations about Jesus without feeling awkward or pushy?
9. Identify one person you know who doesn’t have a relationship with Jesus. What is one small step you can take this week to build a more authentic relationship with them?
