LOVE GOD—LOVE PEOPLE—SERVE THE WORLD

“When the world shakes, God calls us to listen, run to Him as our refuge, and worship Him as citizens of an unshakable kingdom.”

✦ We can remember the past with reverence, face the present with faith, and worship our God with enduring hope.

Hebrews 12:25-29

1. Everything on earth can and will be shaken.

✦ Hebrews does not say, “Nothing will shake.” It says “God is revealing what remains.”

We must always remember that the shaking is not the end of the story for God's people.

2. God remains our refuge.

Psalms 45:1-3, 10 Psalms 47:1, 2

There's a kind of faith that only grows in the shelter of God's presence. It's faith that learns to pray honestly, instead of performing spiritually.

✦ God remains our refuge, and that refuge is only experienced by those who actually run to Him.

3. God's kingdom cannot fall.

Our hope is not built on the strength of this age. It is anchored in the reign of Jesus Christ.

John 16:33

God gives us courage rooted in His victory, so that we would find peace living from His victory, not fighting for our own victory.

✦ Our thankfulness should be more than saying “thank you, God” when life feels good, it should become a settled permanent response to the gift of an unshakable kingdom.

CHALLENGE: If you've been living as though this world is all there is, lift your eyes to the kingdom that cannot be shaken!
