

Chapter 8: The Woman Caught in Adultery and Jesus as the Light of the World

- In the story of the woman caught in adultery (8:1-11), what does Jesus' response reveal about his attitude towards sin and forgiveness? How does this event align with the theme of Jesus as the "Light of the World"?
- Jesus claims that those who follow him will never walk in darkness but have the light of life (8:12). How does this statement relate to the broader themes of illumination and spiritual guidance in the Gospel of John?
