

Chapter 1: The Word Became Flesh

- As John starts his Gospel account, he begins it by introducing Jesus as “the Word” (1:1-18). Why is this significant? How does this introduction set the stage for the rest of the Gospel? In what ways does John 1:1-18 remind you of Genesis 1? Why do you think John did this when he wrote this Gospel?
- What is important about how John the Baptist views Jesus and views himself? How does it relate to the theme of witnessing in the Gospel of John?
