Eph 2:20

“having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone,”

The gift of prophecy is not the ability to speak infallibly.

Neh 8:8

“So they read from the Book of the Law of God, explaining it and giving insight, so that the people could understand what was being read.” BSB

The gift of teaching is content-driven b/c
the word has already been given.

1 Tim 4:13

“..devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to exhortation, and to teaching.” BSB

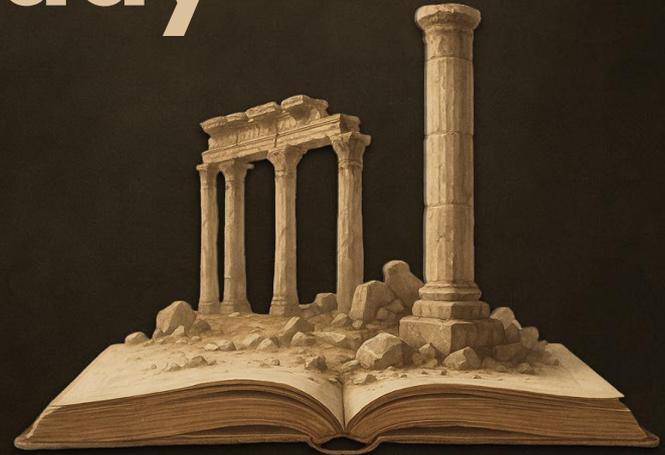

2 Tim 3:16-17

“All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, 17 so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.”

NIV

Having the gift of teaching is not an excuse to not study or to be lazy.

Ezra 7:10 NIV

“Ezra had devoted himself to the study and observance of the Law of the LORD, and to teaching its decrees and laws in Israel.”

Jam 3:1 BSB

“Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers, because you know that we who teach will be judged more strictly.”

Teaching is about accuracy and clarity,
not personality.

Heb 3:13

“..exhort one another daily, while it is called “Today,” lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.”

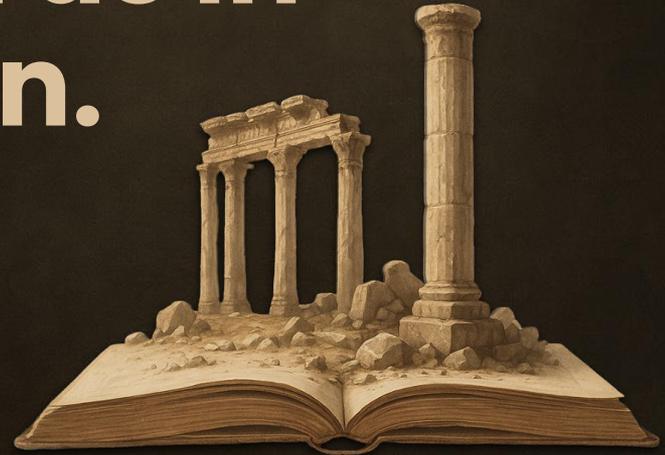

Proverbs 27:14 NIV

“If anyone loudly blesses their neighbor early in the morning, it will be taken as a curse.”

Whether it's comfort or correction, exhortation is meant to point us in the right direction.

Volume doesn't equal value.

Giving is generosity
without hypocrisy.
