DISCUSSION QUESTIONS | JULY 26TH

1. What's something you're currently afraid of or anxious about in this season of life?
2. In Ecclesiastes 11:1-6, the Teacher repeatedly calls us to act even though we don't know what the future holds. What commands or examples stand out to you? What do they have in common?
3. Verse 5 reminds us that we can't fully understand the work of God. Why do you think the Teacher connects that truth with continuing to sow, work, and live faithfully?
4. Looking back a year from now, what would you regret not doing because fear or uncertainty held you back?
5. We can't know what tomorrow holds, but we do know the One who holds tomorrow. How does the hope we have in Christ give us courage to live boldly and faithfully share the gospel, even when we don't know the outcome?
