

Follow Me - Power to Prevail

Have you ever been in a situation that you didn't have the ability to overcome? What happened? How did you get out of it?

Read: Mark 5

How was God's power put on display in all three scenarios in Mark 5?

Is it really necessary to believe that God has the power to effect our life situations? Why or why not?

Read: Revelation 12:9, Ephesians 6:12, Mark 7:21-23

Many people today lean towards a scientific approach to understanding some of the supernatural aspects of scripture, like equivocating demons with human depravity. Is there a problem with this?

What does it say about how we ultimately view God's Word?

What does it mean to hold a high view of scripture? How does that effect our lives?

When you read the stories of the demoniac, the Woman with the Issue of Blood, and Jairus's daughter, how did faith affect their journey?

How does their faith impact you?

Do you believe that Jesus has the power to prevail in ANY situation?

One of the greatest tests of your heart is how you handle no. How have you seen God telling you "no" been a blessing to you?

What does a "no" from God reveal about our hearts?

If we follow God only when He does what we want Him to do, is He really Lord of our lives?

What are you trusting God for?

What do you need to say yes to?

What do you need Jesus to set you free from today?

Who needs to hear your story of God's glory?

How can we pray for each other today?
