

LIFE ON PURPOSE – Make the most of every opportunity

Ice Breaker: Explain a time where you made a fool of yourself, instead of making the most of an opportunity!

Memory Verse:

Colossians 4:5-6 NIV

Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity. Let your conversations be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone.

Verse 5 tells us to be wise in how we act toward outsiders. What does that mean?

What's the opposite of being wise in our interactions with others?

Verse 5 also tells us to make the most of every opportunity. Why is this important, especially talking with those who are not believers?

Read Colossians 1:27

What is the answer that lives inside of us?

How is Jesus the answer to all of our questions?

READ Matthew 7:12

Why is this hard to do?

How do we learn to be kind?

Read Matthew 5:38-41

Why does Jesus tell us to go a Second Mile?

What does that look like Practically?

Read Matthew 5:46-48

Who is the hardest person for you to Love?

How could you go the extra mile for them?

Read Luke 4:22

What is grace?

Why do we want grace from others, yet don't give it to someone else, when they need it?

What areas of your life are you not making the most of every opportunity to be like Christ?

Take some time and pray for one another and encourage each other in the areas you are weak in.
