

I Love My Church - When We All Get To Heaven

You die and go to Heaven, who are the first 3 people you want to see and why?

Read: Daniel 12:2; 1 Thessalonians 4: 13-18, 2 Timothy 2:15

When you think about the Second Coming of Christ, what comes to mind? What do you think it will look like?

LifePoint's Official Statement on Scripture:

We believe in and accept the whole authority of Scripture. We believe that the entire Bible is fully inspired by God, that it is His perfect Word and as such, it is entirely trustworthy as our guide for truth, faith, life, and salvation. We hold a high view of the Scriptures and its authority in our lives.

Why is it important to hold a high view of Scripture? What happens if we don't?

What do you do if you feel uncertain about a passage of Scripture?

How does studying the Bible in groups help us come to a better understanding?

Discuss this saying of the early church that LP holds so dear:

“In essentials, unity; in non-essentials, liberty; and in all things, charity.”

What is essential and non-essential? How do we know? (We follow the Nicene and Apostle’s Creed)

What is really worth debating over?

Can Christ be glorified in discussing and debating these issues? If so, how? If not, why?

How would Jesus debate these issues?

Read: Romans 6:23, Ecclesiastes 3:11, Revelation 20:14

How do you describe eternity?

There are 3 main views on the Rapture:

- Pre-tribulation Rapture - Christ comes for the church before it all goes down.
- Mid-tribulation Rapture - Christ comes for the church halfway through.
- Post-tribulation - Christians will go through the entirety of the Great Tribulation and will be taken up immediately before the second coming.

Which one do you like the most? What could happen to someone’s faith if it didn’t play out as they expected?

Read: Revelation 1:3, Revelation 1:7, 2 Corinthians 5:10, Revelation 21:6-8, Matthew 28:18-20, Acts 1:8, Mark 1:17

What do these passages have to do with the end times?

The central call of the Christian life is evangelism, it is about doing all we can to help other people come to know Jesus and celebrate Him forever in Heaven.

Are you ready?

Are you helping anyone else get ready?

How can we pray for each other tonight?
