

Jude: Standing for Truth – The Habits of Those Who Finish

Name one thing you would “fight for” that really means a lot to you. Examples: family, favorite food, last dessert, favorite team, reputation, faith.

Read: Jude 20-25, 1 Timothy 6:11-12, 2 Timothy 4:7

1. What stood out the most to you during the sermon today? Why?
2. When you hear the phrase “Fight for your faith” what does that mean to you personally?
3. Which of the four habits seem more natural to you right now? Building yourselves up, Praying in the Spirit, Keeping yourselves, or showing mercy while hating sin?
4. Which of these four habits is the hardest for you right now? Why?
5. Faith must be built intentionally. What are some practical ways you can build yourself up during the week?
6. How do you personally recognize the difference between praying in the Spirit, and praying from impulse and emotion?
7. What does It look like to “Keep yourself in the love of God” when you feel ashamed, tired, distracted, or spiritually dry?
8. How can a person show mercy to someone who is struggling, without excusing sin?
9. The sermon emphasized loving people while hating sin. Why is that balance difficult and how can we live it out?
10. Who is one person you know that fought the good fight of faith and finished their race well? What from their life still inspires you today?
