

Foundational - Miscellaneous

So, we answered a lot of questions about the Bible, the Christian Faith, and LifePoint as a church. What questions were your favorite from the series? What questions do you still have?

Why is it important to never stop asking questions?

What posture or attitude is harmful when asking questions? How should we approach our questions about God?

Read: Exodus 20:1-3, Exodus 34:14, Isaiah 44:6, Isaiah 43:11, Revelation 1:8,

In this message we talked about a lot of random things, from God changing our names, the existence of fairies, and even the blending of other religious practices with Christianity. Why is the central theme of the supremacy of God so important for us?

Discuss these statements:

God's greater glory is always our greatest good.

- Kelly Rhoades

"God created man in his own image and man, being a gentleman, returned the favor."

- Mark Twain

The human heart is an idol factory, churning out new idols like the conveyor belt in a manufacturing plant rolling out new widgets.

- John Calvin

Why do you think mankind has tried to blend religions together so much over the years?

What are the modern temptations that could steal the glory that rightly belongs to God?

Why is it so hard to recognize the danger of elevating anything above God in our lives?

Read: Colossians 1:15-20

What steps can we take to keep Christ “preeminent” in our lives personally and as a group?

How can we pray for each other today?
