

What Do You Really Believe?

2 Timothy 1:12 (NKJV)

"For this reason I also suffer these things; nevertheless I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep what I have committed to Him until that Day."

Main Idea

The strength of our faith is not found in us—it is found in the Christ in whom our faith rests.

Introduction

Trials don't create faith—they reveal it. Paul writes from prison awaiting execution, yet his confidence never wavers because it rests in Christ.

Point 1 — I Know Whom I Have Believed

Christianity is about a relationship with Jesus Christ, not merely religion. There is a difference between knowing about Jesus and knowing Jesus. Ask yourself: Is my confidence in Christ or in my religious activity?

Point 2 — I Am Persuaded That He Is Able

Paul's confidence was forged through suffering. God's faithfulness in every trial convinced him that Christ is able. Our confidence rests in His ability, not ours.

Point 3 — He Is Able to Keep What I Have Committed

Paul entrusted his past, present, future, and eternity to Christ. Jesus not only saves His people—He keeps His people. Our security rests in His grip, not ours.

Life Application

- What am I really trusting?
- Do I know Christ personally?
- Am I resting in His strength or my own?
- Is Jesus enough?

Take-Home Truth

When you know Christ personally, you can trust Him completely because He is able to keep all who belong to Him.
