BATES HILL CHURCH | SERMON NOTES

What's Your Turkish Delight?

Genesis 25:27-34 (NKJV) | Pastor Robby Black

The story: Esau came home exhausted and wanted the stew Jacob had cooked. Jacob demanded his birthright in exchange. Esau traded valuable family rights and responsibilities for a meal.

Heart question: What do I want so badly that I'm willing to disobey God to get it?

1. Don't let what you want become your master.

James 1:14; Luke 9:23

When a desire conflicts with God's Word, who gets the final say?

2. Look at what it will cost you.

James 1:15; Mark 8:34-36

What could this choice cost my faith, my family, and my witness?

3. Bring it to Jesus before it takes more from you.

Mark 10:17-27; 1 John 1:9

What do I need to confess, surrender, and turn away from?

My response: What will I surrender to Jesus, and what step of obedience will I take?

Lay it down, and follow Jesus.