DISCUSS

How are these verses crystal clear about substitutionary atonement—Christ dying in our place?

How is this the center of the gospel?

How does this servant song predict the resurrection of Christ?

What is the reward of the servant's triumph over sin and death?

APPLY

How can meditating on these verses enrich your worship of Jesus?

In what ways can the promises of these verses strengthen your assurance of salvation?

How can a passage like this be used in evangelism?

COMMIT

Isiah 53:1 speaks about the revelation of the "arm of the LORD." Meditate on the power of Christ's mediatorial work in your life, trusting in him to faithfully help you live each day.
