Acts: Into the World

Acts 22:22-23:11

1. The Jew's hatred for Gentiles creates such a great barrier in their hearts that they couldn't fathom the Lord saving the Gentiles the same way as the Jews. Are there any preconceived ideas in your heart or mind that may be preventing the Lord from working in certain areas of your life?

2. How would you explain or describe the providence of God? Do you have any examples in your own life to illustrate that?

3. What is the role of our conscience? Use Paul's example in Acts 23:1.

4. In Acts 22, Paul is now in the custody of Rome. What do we learn from Philippians 1:12-14 that points to God's providence? How does this impact how we look at our own circumstances?

5. How does Acts 23:11 shed light on the debate of Paul going to Jerusalem?
