1. Describe your current season of life as if you were describing a weather forecast. Explain why.

Read Philippians 3:1-16 out loud as a group.

2. In verse 12, Paul admits, "...I have not yet attained, nor am I perfected..." In what ways does this resonate with your own walk with Jesus? Are there areas where you've become stagnant or settled, and what intentional step could you take to move forward?
3. As a group, make a list of all the reasons that Christ has laid hold of us for, using Scripture to support your answers. How does this list collectively motivate us to live?
4. In verse 13-14, Paul describes himself doing two things simultaneously to lay hold of the prize – forgetting the things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead. What has the Holy Spirit showed you are the things you need to 'forget' and the things you should be 'reaching for' in your pursuit of the prize?
5. What is your understanding of spiritual maturity in a believer? Firstly, is this Biblical? Secondly, how does this line up with what Paul describes in this passage?

Take time to close your time in prayer.
