

“One More Night With the Frogs”
HOPE GROUP STUDY - Week of March 1, 2026
Let's review this week's message!

1 Let's Talk & Pray

If you could instantly remove one small daily frustration (habit, chore, pet peeve) from your life what would it be? Open with prayer after everyone shares.

2 Let's Review the Main Idea

In Exodus 8, Pharaoh is overwhelmed by a plague of frogs. When Moses offers relief and even lets Pharaoh choose the time, Pharaoh says, 'Tomorrow.' One of the most regrettable words is tomorrow... Pharaoh preferred one more night with the frogs over immediate surrender. He delayed his deliverance. Pharaoh even had his own magicians create more frogs. Pharaoh learned to live with what was meant to disturb him... what was sent to disrupt became something he tolerated. Delay is often just disobedience, and partial surrender settles for life with consequences. This week's points were:

- Stop playing with TRICKERY
- Stop okaying TOLERANCE
- Stop saying TOMORROW

3 Let's Read the Word

Exodus 8:1-11; Colossians 4:5; 2 Cor 6:2

4 Let's Think

- Why do you think Pharaoh chose 'tomorrow' instead of 'now'?
- Why do you think the magicians duplicate the frogs but not remove them?

5 Let's Share

- What 'frog factors' have you learned to live with? (holding a grudge, emotional burdens, debt, price, secret habits, etc.)
- Has there been a time in your life that you delayed a decision you knew you needed to make? What did the delay cost you?
- How can delay become disguised as disobedience in our lives? Why is it easier to delay than to deal with the problems? Did you ever see it as disobedience before?

6 Let's Grow

- Pharaoh's magicians made more frogs. What solutions have you tried that have only made more 'frogs'?
- Where have you been saying 'after this day...' or 'after this happens...' - I'll get to it? Why?
- Why is it easier to delay obedience? What fears do you face when God asks for your obedience?
- What would immediate obedience look like for you this week?

7 Let's Pray

- Pray together over requests and for obedience for God's steps for our lives.
