

TIMING IS EVERYTHING

“It’s Time For Your Mountains to Move” HOPE GROUP STUDY - Week of March 15, 2026 Let’s review this week’s message!

1 Let's Talk & Pray

“If your week had a theme song to represent the obstacles you've faced, what song would it be?” Pray together for the group time after everyone has shared.”

2 Let’s Review the Main Idea

In the book of Zechariah 4:6–10, God gives a powerful message to Zerubbabel, who was tasked with rebuilding God’s temple after exile. The work had stalled for years because of opposition, discouragement, and obstacles that felt like an immovable “mountain.” God’s message was simple but powerful: “Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit.” God reminds us that our victory does not come from our own strength but through His Spirit and His enabling grace.

This week’s points were:

- STRENGTHEN yourself in the Spirit
- SURROUND your life with the Word
- SPEAK to your mountains

3 Let’s Read the Word

Zechariah 4:1-7; 2 Cor. 12:9; Matthew 17:20

4 Let’s Think

- God says, “Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit. What do you think this means in practical terms for our daily lives?”
- Why do you think God said to speak “Grace” to the mountain?

5 Let's Share

- Can you share a time in your life when you faced a “mountain” that seemed impossible to overcome? What happened?
- When you encounter a major obstacle, what is usually your first reaction—faith, fear, frustration, or something else?
- Have you ever experienced a moment when God helped you start over after a failure or long delay? What did that season look like?

6 Let's Grow

- What “unfinished things” in your life (dreams, goals, healing, relationships, spiritual growth) feel like a mountain right now?
- What fears tend to paralyze you when you try to move forward?
- What is one area where you feel God may be saying, “It’s time to begin again”?
- If you could speak “Grace, grace” over one specific situation in your life today, what would it be?

7 Let's Pray

- Pray together over each person, asking God to move the mountains by His Spirit.
