

Christian Freedom
12-14-25 – Mark McCartin
Gal 5:1,7-13

I. Freedom as a supreme value.

Gal 5:1a It is for freedom that Christ has set us free...

II. The Risk of Losing Freedom

Gal 5:1b ... Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery.

III. Freedom that is No Freedom

Gal 5:13a You, my brothers and sisters, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the flesh;

The Modern Definition of Freedom: "Secular Negative Freedom"
Definition: "I am free when I am free from impediments to do whatever I want as long, as I don't hurt anybody else."
(Keller)

"If God does not exist, human beings can define themselves and make themselves what they want." (Jean-Paul Sartre)

The modern mind, the modern secular way of thinking, which even many "Christians" have adopted, include these four basic truths about life.

1. Happiness is the ultimate goal.
2. Feelings are the ultimate guide.
3. Judging is the ultimate sin.
4. God is the ultimate assumption.

Natasha Crane (Faithfully Different)

"There will be no freedom until the last king is strangled on the entrails of the last priest." Denis Diderot

Gal 4:8-9 Formerly, when you did not know God, you were enslaved to those that by nature are not gods. 9 But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and worthless elementary principles of the world, whose slaves you want to be once more?

IV. Christian Freedom isn't just Freedom From but Freedom FOR

Gal 5:14 For the entire law is fulfilled in keeping this one command: "Love your neighbor as yourself."

Gal 5:6 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any value. The only thing that counts is faith expressing itself through love.

Gal 5:16 So I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh.
