

WEEK ONE - JUDGEMENT

Let's Talk

Who is your favourite TV judge? Why?

Watch our 'Table Talk' video for this week

What did you find most encouraging from this week's sermon?

Let's Study

J.I. Packer wrote "moral indifference would be an imperfection in God". What do you think? Should God care about the difference between right and wrong? Why?

Read Matthew 7:13-14

What does it feel like to walk through a narrow gate vs a wide gate? According to this passage, where do the gates lead? This passage indicates there are only two groups of people. How are these groups described?

Read John 10:9 and Acts 4:12

There are many religions that suggest there are many paths, leading to salvation. What would you say to someone who shares this belief? How do these verses conflict with that suggestion?

Read Revelation 20:12

At the final judgement there are two books, one for unbelievers and one for believers. What is the difference?

Pastor Jon said, "what was done will be exposed". How do you feel about this statement? Do you think God's grace can impact the way we feel when everything is exposed? Why?

Read Matthew 6:20

What does it mean to store up treasures in heaven? How do we do that? In what ways might this change the way we live?

Let's Apply

In light of today's discussion, what do you find most challenging?

Let's Pray

Praise the Lord for the grace given to those who believe in Him.

Pray that a greater understanding of Jesus as the Judge of eternity, will have an impact on the way we live in the here and now.
