

Awareness: The Me, Myself, and I Riddle

1 Kings 19:9-18

-Pastor Mark Prestridge-

Awareness of ___ particularly springs from _____ and ___ must be mastered first and foremost.

None of the spiritual habits are natural. Becoming proficient in the spiritual habits need ___. Following Jesus is not a ___ act! You need a partner!

Get away from all noise, distractions and attractions. Quit giving God the leftovers and begin giving Him the first overs. Persevere and you will break through the “_____”.

Awareness of _____: Feelings, Ideas, Personalities, Past

Am I _____ to those around me? When I am, I’m better equipped to _____ appropriately to them.

Do I know their ___?

Awareness of others is _____ if you’re going to have emotionally healthy relationships.

Awareness of “_____”. A lot of time our mirrors are like those

As I referred to earlier, do you know how your ___?

Are you capable of being in touch with your _____?

Can you list your _____ and weaknesses?

Are you aware of your _____? Have you leveraged your limits so they can be used of God to reach others (turn your _____ into purposes!)

Are you living a balanced lifestyle: _____.

Do you have a ___ conscience?

Do you have a disciple _____?

Have you learned how to ___ through grief and loss?

Are you keeping your "love tank" _____?

Psalm 139:17-18, "How precious are your thoughts about me, O God. They cannot be numbered! I can't even count them; they outnumber the grains of sand!"
