

1 Corinthians 11

23 For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread, 24 and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "This is my body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

1 Corinthians 11

25 In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.” 26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.

2. How We Participate for Our Good & Not Our Harm?

1 Corinthians 11:31 But if we judged ourselves truly, we would not be judged.
32 But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined so that we may not be condemned along with the world.

2. How We Participate for Our Good & Not Our Harm?

1 Corinthians 11:28 Let a person examine himself, then, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. 29 For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment on himself.

2. How We Participate for Our Good & Not Our Harm?

1. Look back... to His atoning death
2. Look in... examine yourself
3. Look around... to communion with the people of God
4. Look out... to the lost not yet with us at the Table
5. Look forward... to a future day
