

In this Sunday's Gospel, we see the Lord Jesus joining two disciples on the road to Emmaus. He listened to them, He scolded them for their disbelief, He explained to them the Scriptures, He accepted their hospitality, and vanished from their sight after they recognized him at the breaking of the bread. Our Lord walks with us in our personal journey so that He leads us to the Father's home.

While times may be difficult, let us open our hearts and minds so that we may recognize our merciful, loving God and His works in our lives.
