

On the Sunday of the Annunciation to the Blessed Mother (Luke 1:26-38), Archangel Gabriel relates the message of God to Mary that she will conceive and bear the "Son of the Most High." In her surrender to God, "Let His will be done in me," Mary is a great model of faith and trust.

When it comes to us, we often ask the Lord to fulfill our hopes and desires instead of seeking to do His will. May we be inspired by the example of Mary.
