This week, we commemorate the Faithful Departed.

Death is a reality, no human can escape it. However, as Christians, we are called to enjoy everlasting life in God's heavenly dwellings.

Let us be constantly vigilant
and ready to face our Lord.
May the souls of all our faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

SUNDAY OF THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED
FEBRUARY 20, 2022

"Jesus Christ our Lord, make us worthy to remember the faithful departed who professed their faith in you and received your Body and Blood as nourishment and blessings. Grant them rest, and may they share in your eternal banquet and your everlasting joy.

Count them among your chosen ones, and may they raise glory and thanks to you, to your Father, and to your Holy Spirit, for ever."

Sunday of the Faithful Departed*
