

'My Lord and my God' Thomas professed after Jesus invited him to put his fingers in his wound and believe (John 20:28).

On this New Sunday and Divine Mercy Sunday, let us renew our faith in our Risen Lord, in His infinite mercy.

May we overcome our doubts, seek to live as new creatures, and to preach the Good News to all the people we encounter in our daily lives.

+A. Elias Zaidan
Bishop of the Eparchy of Our Lady of Lebanon of Los Angeles

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY/NEW SUNDAY

APRIL 24, 2022

O Christ our God, by your glorious resurrection you gave joy to those in heaven and on earth, uniting them spiritually as one.

Eight days later, you visited your holy apostles and entered the Upper Room, where they were gathered with the doors shut. You invited Thomas to see and put his hand in your side pierced by the lance and to touch your hands wounded by the nails. He proclaimed his faith, crying out: “My Lord and my God!” And you made him a witness to your glorious resurrection.

Sedro-Liturgy of the Word for New Sunday

